On behalf of the Duxbury Police Department and the community we proudly serve, I am honored to formally accept our designation as an International City of Peace and to affirm our commitment through the Pledge for Peace.

This recognition reflects the shared values of our residents, civic leaders, and public servants who work daily to foster an environment of safety, dignity, respect, and understanding. Policing is most effective when grounded in trust, transparency, collaboration, and mutual respect. This designation reinforces our continued commitment to those principles.

The Duxbury Police Department is not only focused on enforcing the law, but also dedicated to promoting peace through community engagement, proactive problem-solving, fairness, and accountability. We recognize that peace is not merely the absence of conflict, but the presence of justice, compassion, and opportunity for all.

By accepting this designation and pledge, we reaffirm our promise to work proactively with our community partners to build safer neighborhoods, strengthen relationships, and address challenges with integrity and empathy.

We are grateful for this meaningful recognition and look forward to upholding the responsibilities that come with being an International City of Peace.

Respectfully,

Michael Carbone
